AUTUMN SHOW & SALE OF SUCKLED CALVES

Auctioneer: LYNDON TRUMPER & STEPHEN WILLIAMS

A superb entry of 328 suckled calves forward for the Annual Show & Sale. Despite a drought during the Summer, the calves were showed in tremendous bloom with the trade exceeding all expectations.

A massive crowd of buyers were present all battling for the quality calves, resulting in a huge increase of the average price.

176 steers returned an average of £1733.71 & 506p/kg, up £608.49 per head on last year.

152 heifers returned an average of £1678.87 & 500p/kg, up £680.55 per head on last year.

The Show was judged by Ms Annie Lewis & Lewis Walters from Brecon who awarded the Overall Champion and The Tom Chandler Perpetual Challenge Trophy to a Charolais heifer exhibited by RT Watkins Farming, Abergavenny, the 9 month old heifer sold to £2620.

The Reserve Champion was awarded to a Charolais steer (6m) from RT Watkins Farming, and sold to £2040 (320kg).

The best Pair of Heifers was awarded to two Charolais crosses from RO Chandler, Llanvihangel Crucorney (415kg-£2010). The best Pair of Steers saw Charolais crosses from RT Watkins Farming sell to £1980 (335kg).

The Rob Watkins Perpetual Challenge Trophy for the best Consignment was judged by Huw Leyshon and awarded to James Watkins of RT Watkins Farming.

Steers calves topped at 661p/kg (248kg-£1640) for Charolais crosses with Heifers to 631p/kg (260kg-£1640), all from RT Watkins Farming.

Overall an exceptional show of quality calves from local producers which sold to record averages and returns.

A huge thank you to all Vendors & Buyers for their support. Overall average 328 calves (£1708.40 & 500p/kg).
