SALE OF BREEDING SHEEP FRIDAY 4th SEPTEMBER

A terrific entry of just short of 3000 sheep sold to a generally more cautious sale than the previous sale.

The 'top end' sorts in shorter supply today but with the best still looking a tremendous trade and with 10 pens at £300 or above.

Some of the mid-range ewes still looking extremely well sold, but with the lower end falling back by a bigger degree.

YEARLING EWES

Overall the yearlings sold to an average of £238.61/head.

Top selling in the Yearlings went to a few lots of pure bred ewes with Texels from JP Sevenoaks & Sons, Walterstone leading the way at £380. J Phillis, Crickhowell also sold Texels to £370.

Leading the way in the 'commercial' yearlings was a super pen of Coloured Welsh Mules from K Thorne, Blackmill selling at £340.

Suffolk Mules from WM Watkins & Sons, Grosmont topped at £320 twice, with Texel Mules from JG Biggs & Son, Penrhos also topping at £320, and Beltex crosses at £310 from JP Sevenoaks & Sons.

Messrs Heath & Cowles, Tregare, EMA Parry & Son, Garthbrenghy and TG Biddle, St Briavels also sold to £300 with Texel Mules, K Thorne sold further Welsh Mules at £300 and also Texel Mules at £295.

Plenty of business done between £250 & £290, with some 20 further lots in that range.
