MONDAY 22ND SEPTEMBER

FINISHED LAMBS

Auctioneer: STEPHEN WILLIAMS

A short entry of just 515 lambs forward, the impact of the 6 day standstill meant several vendors were unable to present sheep for sale and therefore affecting supply. All buyers requiring sheep today and the SQQ levelled at 315.16p/kg and 310.04p/kg all in.

The lighter lambs saw a big lift and were short of buyers' requirements averaging 331.99p/kg with a top of 345p/kg.

Overall well fleshed types were extremely easy to sell and well ahead of other centres on the day.

CULL EWES

Auctioneer: STEPHEN WILLIAMS

A good entry of 368 cull ewes sold to another superb trade despite a large entry of plain and Hill types. Heavy well fleshed types were short of buyers' requirements and easily despatched to a competitive trade. Suffolk X ewes to £173 from R & J Morris, Coed Y Paen, leaner Suffolk crosses to £165 from GD & A Evans, Pencoed. The best of the Jules to £142 for North Country Mules from PH Ellis & Son, Raglan.

GG Davies & Son, Llanvihangel Crucorney sold a big pen of North Country Mules at £140. The best of the good under ewes saw Suffolk X Welsh to £131 and Nelson Welsh ewes to £108.50 from JG, LJ & TJ David, Port Talbot. A poor quality show of cast rams saw Welsh tups to £110 from DC Quigley, Talywain. Wethers sold to £149 from GP & NC Thomas, Cowbridge.

CULL SHEEP	Number	Max	Average

STORE SHEEP

Auctioneer: STEPHEN WILLIAMS

A useful entry of 252 store lambs of all types, breeds & sizes. No real strength in the lambs but a big crowd of buyers all looking to secure lambs as the grass grows. Clean lambs to £114 for Texel crosses from R & J Morris, Coed Y Paen. A nice bunch of medium term Continental X lambs from AD Garfield & Son, Maesteg sold to £102, with similar bred types to £100 from Miss LA Jones, Lower Maescoed. Welsh lambs to £86.50 from J Smith, Rhymney, small and backward types £40-£50. More lambs required every week to satisfy demand.
